Beautiful Beechwood.

This will be the last week of vaudeville at Beechwood and Manager Hamilton has gotten together the best show of the season. The program is headed by Baby Irma Wikoff and Company in her dainty little one act play "Morning, Noon and Night." Baby Irma is a petite little actress and is a favorite wherever she appears. This act has been featured everywhere it has been presented and the management were very fortunate to secure it. The new illustrated song will be the new march song "It's the Man in the Soldier Suit." Ed. Hays, the Minstrel man, is funny. The Kinodrome will show "The Order of Eagles. Life of an American Policeman." This is a story pictured of actual happenings of a police- Encampment man in a large city and is very interesting. This is the best time to visit Beechwood. See the show and tell your friends and help make this week the banner week of the season in the or address point of attendance.
